Debrief of Ambush at Ricochet Junction 2017

Ranger Six conducted a Debriefing of the annual match in conjunction with the June 4 Membership Meeting. Of 51 shooters registered, 48 participated in the Main Match with 8 shooting the Wild Bunch Match.

Results of the Questionnaires say we did well and the event was a success. Major complaint was "It was only a 2-Day match, should've been a 3-Day event".

Those in attendance of the June 4 meeting offered recommendations for membership consideration regarding the scheduling and planning of Ambush at Ricochet Junction 2018.

IMPORTANT NOTICE: Ranger Six will present for membership vote, the recommendations for Ambush at Ricochet Junction 2018 during the course of the July 2, Membership Business Meeting.

New Member Welcomed

We are proud to announce Becky Collier has joined the ranks of the Northeast Washington Regulators. Welcome Becky! We're all proud to have you as a member, and I do believe a rousing "Yea!", "One more for the team!" was heard from the ladies. Need I say more?

Something on the Side

Six members got together on Sunday, May 28 for an impromptu Steel Challenge match. Following International Steel Shooting Association rules, we had fun shooting 6 stages and experiencing a shooting discipline altogether different from Cowboy Action Shooting.

- Is there an interest in adding this discipline to club sanctioned activities?
- Do we have members who are also members of the International Steel shooting Association and qualified by certification to conduct Steel Challenge Matches?

Perhaps something to consider.

Anyway, we had fun experiencing something different and thank Rick Miller for his expertise and providing the opportunity.

Here are our scores, such as they are:

Rick Miller	CF-PCC-I	92.20
Dale Odekirk	CF-RV-I	102.89
Bob Trudell	CF-PCC-I	103.95
Larry Micheau	RF-I	106.45
Bonnie Trudell	RF-I	139.47
Don Cleave	CF-PCC-I	168.37
