

NEW REGULATORS

AUGUST 2017 MONTHLY NEWSLETTER

Saturday August 12, 2017

Current Events

Well, what can I say? There was no membership meeting Sunday and therefore no new news to report. What can be shared with all is that Ranger Six has hit the ground running full speed ahead with planning and organizing Ambush at Ricochet Junction 2018. The theme is set, scenarios and story lines are underway, and so stay tuned as much more is to come and help from all members is solicited and will be appreciated.

Also, Ranger Six is looking for unwanted and no longer usable garden hose. If you have some, don't send it to the land fill, bring it to the September shoot and Ranger Six will be most appreciative. This has something to do with a new way to "shoot snakes" so for sure, you can rely on it being put to good use with a high fun factor and enjoyment for all.

Cowboy Action Shooting Monthly Matches

A good time was had sending hot lead downrange at Ricochet Junction for the August matches, in spite of the smoke in the air blocking the sun but not the heat. Twelve joined in for Saturday's match, including welcomed guests and new shooters Ace & Piece O' Cake Jake from Clayton along with Leanne, Chris and Merv from Grand Forks, British Columbia. Descanso, from Sandpoint, joined us for Sunday's goings on as also did new shooter Bandito Lee.

Hopefully the September 2nd and 3rd matches will be accompanied with clear and cooler air, no guarantees, but for sure, another fun week-end of Cowboy Action Shooting will be happening at Ricochet Junction with scenarios provided by Ranger Six on Saturday and A,T, McGee on Sunday.
