Here's the Latest

- Cold Weather Monthly Match Cancellations

In the interest of safety and recognizing the point at which it no longer fun, those in attendance of the November 5th Membership Meeting voted unanimously to introduce a policy to cancel monthly shoots if the forecasted temperature for the days of the monthly shoot is 20 degrees Fahrenheit or lower. The forecasted temperature for the shoot week-end will be reviewed on the Wednesday prior, and if the monthly matches are to be cancelled the following will happen:

- Notice of cancellation will be placed on Face-Book (future posting on the club's web page is being pursued).
- Notice will be issued via e-mail to all on the Northeast Washington Regulators & Friends contact list.
- If the "Shoot or No Shoot?" question remains, contact Covada or Granny Gunsmoke at 509-684-4476 or e-mail covada@plix.com.

- Getting the Range ready for Winter

Thanks to the few who showed up on the damp Saturday, October 21 Work Day (Ranger Six, Del Monte, Crazy Knife Al, Covada, Granny Gunsmoke with Zoe, & A.T. McGee, Ricochet Junction is ready for winter and the Club House will be warm for all to enjoy. Photo's courtesy of Ranger Six.

Your club, the Northeast Washington Regulators, is making the effort to ensure the voice of all members are heard and hope all members will respond by casting their ballot. Remember, the success of the Northeast Washington Regulators is dependent upon you who constitute the club membership.

Cowboy Action Shooting Monthly Matches

Mother Nature decided to make a statement during the course of the November monthly match and in difference to the hot lead going down range and burning of gunpowder, she let us know who really calls the shots. Regardless, eight “cowboys & cowgirls” showed up on Saturday with 6 “really hardcore shooters” returning for the Sunday Shoot. (Photos courtesy of Ranger Six)
