AMBUSH at RICOCHET JUNCTION 2018

DEPUTIES

Unsung Heroes of the West

Sixty-four Cowboys and Cowgirls from the great North-West, including British Columbia, Idaho Montana, Oregon and Washington, gathered here at Ricochet Junction over May 4,5 & 6 to participate in Ambush at Ricochet Junction 2018. The action started with 3- stages of Wild Bunch Action shooting followed by a 4-stage Warm-Up match. Over the next two days, shooters took on the 12-stage main match plus side matches of Cowboy Clays, Dueling Cowboy Challenge and the Wild Bill Hickok Trophy shoot. All said and done, there was plenty of shooting action for all.

Saturday evening festivities started with a social featuring Crazy Knife Al's complementary Margarita Bar followed by a 3- entrée dinner served up by Rosie and helpers Granny Gunsmoke, Rebi, Madame Miller, Talking Hands Josie, Winnie Chester and Grocery Lady. Also featured were delicious homemade pies cakes and brownies. The evening festivities continued with awards, William Bowie's door prize drawings and auction of donated items including a hand crafted knife by William Bowie.

Following Sunday's conclusion of the Main Match, Rosie & crew provided a complementary lunch of chili and fixen's prior to the presentation of awards.

As it goes with events such as this there are more people to thank than this publication allows, however it can't go without saying thank-you to Scooter McComb and the Scout Troop 921 for their Waddie service and lending extra chairs along with Scooter's willingness to perform as the event photographer.

Rosie also shouts out a big thanks to Pinto Annie for the name badges and her last minute save with the scoring system glitch. Not to be forgotten, thanks to you who showed up early and lent a hand with final range set-up and also those staying over to assist with the tear down.
