North-East Washington Regulators on Parade

Thanks to Granny Gunsmoke's creativity and Covada's ingenuity, along with decorative help from participating members, the North-East Washington Regulators entered a float in the North-East Washington Fair Parade. Leading off and mounted on their trusty steeds are Majestic Wolf and Jesse James. Along with Covada at the reins, Crazy Knife Al rode shotgun while Granny Gunsmoke, Rosie and A. T. McGee occupied the rear coach. Not shown in the photo but filling an important public relations role, Spicy Angel and Nate walked the entire parade route handing out candy to youngsters along the way.

Ambush at Ricochet Junction 2020

The subject of next year's annual match will be on the agenda for the next Board of Directors meeting Saturday October 5, following that day's monthly match.

As always, membership input and participation is needed to make 2020's event another great success. So make a note to come out and enjoy some Cowboy Action Shooting fun, then stick around to participate in the planning of Ambush at Ricochet Junction 2020.
