Winter Rules Update Effective December 4

In accordance with the Board of Directors determination: Monthly matches will be cancelled if the forecasted temperature is 25 degrees F or lower. All other remaining Winter Rules provisions remain unchanged.

Cold weather is here and being a warm, comfortable and safe shooter is more important than styling in your best cowboy garb. So dress warm, stage your six-guns if your hands are cold, slow down a bit to be safe and have fun.

To be totally on the safe side, if the forecasted range temperature for Ricochet Junction on match days is 25 degrees F or lower the match will be cancelled. If such is the case, notice will be given via e-mail to all North-East Washington Regulators & Friends.

If you're still not sure, contact Granny Gunsmoke at 509-684-4476 or A.T. McGee at 509-680-0630.

To alleviate the effort of finding all of your rifle brass buried in the snow, and not to be construed with shooting in the OPEN class, lever or pump rimfire rifles chambered in 22LR may be used in lieu of center fire cowboy action rifles for monthly matches.

Did You Know?

Tidbits to ponder courtesy of Territorial Governor Ranger Six

If you have ever looked for Cowboy Action Shooting videos on YouTube you know there are quite a few to choose from. Some of the very best have been produced by Jed I Knight, SASS # 36423L. Jed not only includes stage introductions and scenario instructions, but also walks the viewer through the stage with bright numbers superimposed on the targets showing where the rounds should be going. This is a great way to introduce folks to how Cowboy shooting works. Several different matches have been showcased by Jed including "True Grit" at Roseburg, Oregon, Westmatch, Standoff at Smokey Point and the 2021 Washington State Championship.

Jed plans to join us at the annual match next May and produce a show for You Tube as well. You can find Jed's shows by searching "JED iTV" on Google or "Jed I Knight" on You Tube.
