North-East Washington Regulators plans an Open House

Hoping to increase community awareness of the North-East Washington Regulators and participation in the sport of Cowboy Action Shooting, an open house is proposed for Saturday August 6.

Granny Gunsmoke is the director for the event and detailed plans will be finalized at the Board of Directors meeting on Saturday, July 2nd.

The current proposed event itinerary includes:

- Cowboy Action Shooting demonstration by a posse of club members.
- Guests invited to experience shooting Cowboy Action Firearms with members providing RO direction and guidance.
- Free Hotdog Lunch with all the trimmings.

Membership involvement is the key for the success of this undertaking and hopefully there will be an increased participation for the planning as well as the Open House Event.
