New Member Welcomed

The North-East Washington Regulators welcomes Tim Davison, aka Limping Logger as a new member.

SASS RO TRAINING

SASS RO training classes held March 16 & 17, conducted by Crisco, and assisted by Ricochet Robbie, were well attended.

Seventeen completed the RO Level One class, of which 15 were NEW Regulators, and attending the RO Level II training were 12 NEW Regulators.

We thank Crisco and Ricochet Robbie for finding time in their busy schedule to make themselves available for us, and to Crisco for his excellent presentations. Also, a big thank you from all who attended is owed to Granny Gunsmoke who provided lunch for both days.

Annual General Membership Meeting

The Annual General Membership Meeting was held Saturday April 6 as scheduled. While attendance was limited, those present enjoyed a fine meal prepared by Rosie.

Included on the meeting agenda was a proposal to the Board of Directors presented by Redneck 6 Shooter requesting approval to start a monthly Speed Steel shooting program. The purpose being to introduce a new shooting discipline which would increase range use diversification. He also expects the benefit of exposing more shooters to the North-East Washington Regulators and Cowboy Action Shooting.

Lacking a quorum of the board, the matter was tabled, and Sheriff Granny Gunsmoke will convene the full Board to hear the proposal.

Receiving awards for 2023 were:

- Most Clean Matches: Granny Gunsmoke
- Most Improved Shooter: Covada
- Top Gun: A.T. McGee
- Spirit of the Game: Redneck 6 Shooter

DID YOU KNOW?

Courtesy of Territorial Governor Ranger Six

Recently two makers of cowboy lead bullets have sold their companies, which have been acquired by established bullet businesses.

Chey-Cast Bullets (of Wyoming) owners have retired, and their products are now available from Choice Ammunition (of Montana). However, the only bullets currently available are poly-coated.

Outlaw Bullets (of Florida) have been taken over by a bullet making company in Georgia. The original founder of Outlaw Bullets, Waimea, is in the process of moving to France.

You can find these sources of bullets by googling Chey- Cast or Outlaw Bullets.

The OPEN category is offered as an alternative for Monthly Matches. Shooting in the OPEN Category will be fun but participants are not eligible to win match or win in any category.
